Circular

National Informatics Centre (NIC-Delhi State Unit), Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology, Government of India, assists various departments of GNCTD in implementation of e-governance projects. Implementation of these projects is based on discussions between NIC and the concerned Departments of GNCTD. The Information Technology Department, GNCTD has limited role in implementation of these projects. During the implementation of these projects, Department could be facing various technical issues, which may require resolution through IT Department.

2.   Chief Secretary, Delhi has reviewed the matter and directed that any Department encountering any technical issues in implementation of NIC projects must first bring the matter to the attention of Secretary(IT), who will then make efforts to resolve the issues, in consultation with the concerned departments and NIC.

3.   All Departments are therefore requested to apprise the IT Department of any technical issues being faced by them in implementation of NIC projects.
