INSTRUCTIONS

1. The Confidential Report is an important document. It provides the basis and vital inputs for assessing the performance of an officer and for his/her further advancement in his/her career. The Officer reported upon, the Reporting Officer and the Reviewing Officer, should, therefore, undertake the duty of filling out the form with a high sense of responsibility.
2. Performance appraisal through confidential reports should be used as a tool for human resource development. Reporting Officers should realize that the objective is to develop an officer so that he/she realizes his/her true potential. It is not meant to be a fault-finding process but a development one. The Reporting Officer and the Reviewing Officer should not shy away from reporting shortcomings in performance, attitudes or overall personality of the officer reported upon.
3. The items should be filled with due care and attention and after devoting adequate time. Any attempt to fill the report in a casual or superficial manner will be easily discernible to the higher authorities.
4. If the Reviewing Officer is satisfied that the Reporting Officer had made the report without due care and attention, he/ she shall record a remark to that effect in item 2 of Part-IV. The Government shall enter the remarks in the confidential report of the Reporting Officer.
5. Every answer shall be given in a narrative form. The space provided indicates the desired length of the answer. Words and phrases should be chosen carefully and should accurately reflect the intention of the officer recording the answer. Please use unambiguous and simple language. Please do not use omnibus expressions like 'outstanding', 'very good', 'good', 'average', 'below average', while giving your comments against any of the attributes.
6. The Reporting Officer shall, in the beginning of the year, assign targets to each of the officers with respect to whom he is required to report upon for compilation during the year. In the case of an officer taking up a new post in the course of the reporting year, such targets / goals shall be set at the time of assumption of the new charge. The targets set should clearly be known and understood by both the officers concerned.
7. Although performance appraisal is a year –end exercise, in order that it may be a tool for human resource development, the Reporting Officer should at regular intervals review the performance and take necessary corrective steps by way of advice, etc.
8. It should be the endeavour of each appraiser to present the truest possible picture of the appraisee's performance in regard to his/her performance, conduct, behaviour and potential.
9. Assessment should be confined to the appraisee's performance during the period of report only.
10. Some post of the same rank may be more exacting than others. The degree of stress and strain in any post may also vary from time to time. These facts should be borne in mind during appraisal and should be commented upon appropriately.

Note: The following procedure should be followed in filling up the column relating to integrity:-

- (i) If the Officer's integrity is beyond doubt, it may be clearly ticked.
- (ii) If there is any doubt or suspicion, the following action is taken as under-

(a) A separate secret note should be recorded and followed up. A copy of the note should also be sent together with the Confidential Report to the next superior officer who will ensure that the follow-up action is taken expeditiously. Where it is not possible either to certify the integrity or to record the secret note, the Reporting Officer should state either that he had not watched the Officer's work for sufficient time to form a definite judgement or that he had heard nothing against the officer, as the case may be.

(b) If, as a result of the follow-up action, the doubts or suspicions are cleared, the officer's integrity should be certified and an entry made accordingly in the Confidential Report.

(c) If the doubts or suspicions are confirmed, this fact should also be recorded and duly communicated to the officer concerned.

(d) If as a result of the follow-up action, the doubts or suspicions are neither cleared nor confirmed, the officer's conduct should be watched for a further period and thereafter action taken as indicated at (b) and (c) above.

(e) When a reporting Officer cannot in fairness to himself and to the Government servant reported upon, either certify integrity or make an adverse entry or even be in possession of any information which would enable him to make a secret report to the Head of Department, i.e. when a Government servant is serving in remote station and the Reporting Officer has not had occasion to watch his work closely or when a Government servant has worked under the reporting Officer only for a brief period or has been on long leave etc. the Reporting Officer should make an entry in the integrity column to the effect that he has not watched the Government's Servant's work for sufficient time to be able to make any definite remark or that he has heard nothing against the Government Servant's integrity, as the case may be. This would be factual statement to which there can be no objection. But, it is necessary that a superior officer should make every effort to form a definite judgement about the integrity of those working under him, as early as possible, so that he may be able to make a positive statement.

IMPORTANT- In cases where suspicion exists regarding the integrity of a subordinate officer reported upon, an entry in the integrity column can be made only after definite and distinct articles of charges have been framed.
